SLK makes a splash debut with this uptempo dance remake of the Eurythmics hit! Now based in Los Angeles, SLK originates from Hawaii. Each member of this exciting new duo has proven herself individually. Sonya-Lee has had international exposure in Asian markets on MTV Asia, other televised specials and numerous performances throughout California and Hawaii. Complementing Sonya's charisma and vibrant performance style is Kaina, a successful vocalist and songwriter. She has performed all around the country from House of Blues - New Orleans to House of Blues - Los Angeles, as well as backing up both indy artists and stars like Luther Vandross and Deborah Cox on the ALMA awards. National television exposed SLK singing in the rain during the LA Marathon coverage in which they were the only band bold enough to go on with the show during the rainstorm. They looked and sounded phenomenal!

With a strong live show complete with female dance revue, press coverage and strength in the dance/pop sector SLK will soar with "Here Comes The Rain Again".

소녀 듀엣 'SLK'
첫 싱글 CD 제작

'Here Comes The Rain-'
한인2세 소녀 리 주축

한인 2세 소녀 리가 활동하는 캘리포니아 소녀 듀엣 SLK가 첫 번째 싱글CD 'Here Comes The Rain Again'을 발표했다.

1980년대 유행했던 유리스믹스의 히트곡을 업템포시켜 댄스풍으로 리메이크한 곡으로 DMC레코드사에 의해 발매됐다. SLK의 리더싱어인 소녀 리씨는 매혹적인 보컬과 카리스마가 가득한 공연으로 관객의 주목을 받았으며 LA 마라톤대회와 한국의 날 축제 등을 통해 이미 한인들에게는 친숙한 얼굴이다.

SLK: Dancing Up a Storm

To achieve success, artists must pay their dues. In singing duo SLK's case, those dues included performing in a driving rainstorm in front of a national television audience at the Los Angeles Marathon last year. The tune they sang, appropriately enough, was the Eurythmic's "Here Comes the Rain Again."

The dancing duo has released their debut single, and uptempo dance rendition of the old Eurythmics hit. SLK is composed of Sonya Lee (right) and Kaina, two Asian American women of Korean and Filipino American descent. The two, who specialize in creating their own brand of high energy dance tracks, hail from Hawaii.

SLK's single is currently getting play on radio stations on the West Coast. They are hoping to expand from their Southern California fan base and achieve mainstream exposure throughout the country. Lee has already gained exposure with performances on MTV Asia. ■
